

Westside Youth Orchestra

Fall Semester 2022-2023. Audition required for New & Returning Students

Spring Semester 2023 . Audition required for New Students only.

Student Enrollment Contract

2022 – 2023

Attendance at ALL scheduled rehearsals, concerts or other special events is mandatory. Be sure to add the Fall & Spring semester rehearsal and concert dates to your calendar. We ask that you arrange your schedules to be able to participate fully.

Students are limited to two excused absences during each 1 week semester. Requests for permission to be absent for a legitimate reason should be submitted in advance by Email. The Music Director reserves the right to place on probation, require a re-audition test, or dismiss any student who has accumulated more than two absences or tardiness's to rehearsals. Participation in all scheduled concerts is mandatory. Absence from a concert may be grounds for immediate dismissal from the orchestra, excepting illness or family emergency. The equivalent of a B+ to A+ grade is a requirement of students in the performance of their music at weekly rehearsals. Students must be concurrently studying their instrument with a private instructor. Students are responsible for the care and insurance coverage of their instruments. Westside Youth Orchestra assumes no responsibility for lost, stolen or damaged instruments during the course of rehearsals or concerts.

There are no make-up classes, credit or refunds for student absences. Westside Youth Orchestra provides all music used at rehearsals and performances. Students may take the music home to practice and are responsible for maintaining it in good condition.
